THE RIDE...THE FOOD...THE PRIZES...THE STUPIDLY HARD ROUTE...THE GLORIOUS EUPHORIC PAIN...THE ROCKS, THE DIRT, THE MUD...

GRAVEL RIDE? SORTA...

The world famous Rock Cobbler is a stupidly hard ride bordering on a race. It was conceived by drunken madmen...on a ride...then on barstools...late in the night. The Pebbler is less stupidly hard but still a true challenge. As always we are passionate and driven to showcase dirt trails, roads and things that are neither. Shenanigans abound. We promise a unique, challenging route of lots o' dirt and everything from MTB level stuff to easy gravel fun....In a very Bakersfield way. As is tradition, the final routes, other details, updates, rules and news will be shared with registered riders the week before the event.

ROUTES

- The Cobbler will be roughly about and around 80ish miles 5500—6500 ft of elevation gain and the Pebbler half of that, roughly. Having fun is a must. You might meet Tacoman, cross a river, suck your thumb, cuss at us but you WILL hike with your bike and pedal a lot with a lot of steep short climbs. We promise an adventure!

GEAR

- Both routes are designed to be a challenge on a gravel/cross bike, ideally fitted with some FINE IRC tires. Choose your width and tread carefully, we throw it all at ya. Mountain bikes OK! Road bikes, bad idea!

WHAT YOU GET/ENTRY FEE

- A nutty, hard, fun route, amazing event support and SAG stops with FLUID hydration and other awesome food, Twinkie's, beer, great food (breakfast and lunch), raffle prizes, swag, shenanigans, music and THE SPECIAL GIFT for all riders. Entry fee is $160, total rider count limited to 500. Sorry, no refunds.

BASIC RULES

- There are no categories but we do award the first male and female finisher of each ride with an extra special gift.
- This is NOT a race, it is a damn challenging ride (but ride as fast as you wish!).
- The Cobbler is hard. You must make it to the final SAG stop by 4:30pm or reserve the right to haul you in.
